THE GREAT COMMISSION

The Great Commission—to spread the Gospel to the world—is of prime importance to all Christians.

We can all praise the Lord for the opportunities He gives us to spread His message.

It often feels that, as Christians, we miss many opportunities by trying to 'force' the Word upon those who are unreceptive! I believe that Jesus gave us all the gift to lead people to Him with love and understanding. He himself did not threaten or condemn sinners. He offered them healing and brought them to Him through His love and gentleness. Let us not be guilty of driving His people away by presenting them with a God of fear and punishment.

We miss many opportunities by trying to force the Word upon those who are unreceptive.

We all know only too well that the god of fear and punishment is Satan, and that Jesus came to lift us out of the pain and suffering, which Satan inflicts on this world. Let us follow Jesus' example, and draw people to Him as Jesus would have done it.

TESTIMONY

Thank you so much for all your prayers. My father has miraculously recovered. The doctors are amazed. It all happened after I asked you to pray for him. Your's (Rev. Jana Bernadette's) and the Circle of Power's prayers were definitely heard. Praise the Lord. After a month of being unconscious following two heart attacks, open heart surgery and three strokes, my father, who is 76, is now alert, walking, talking and enjoying himself. Again many thanks to you and the prayer fellowship for all your prayers. Thank you, Lord!

MEDIA OUTREACH
A SPECIAL REPORT

"Go into all the world and preach the good news to all creation."
Mark 16:15

Rev. Raphael de Peyer taping with Vanessa Vaughn of Atlanta Interfaith Broadcasters.

Spreading Christ's message of salvation and healing via the media is a vital part of the Great Commission (Matthew 28:18-20), and Foundation ministers all over North America are frequent guests on radio and television. Ministers from Faith Center have often featured locally, being invited to appear on famous Ring Radio (WRNG), and not long ago on WTBS-TV on a program that reached 13 million via satellite, as well as on many other shows here and in Birmingham, Alabama. Recently the Lord moved us to expand this aspect of the Ministry to cities further afield, out of which came three special missions.

MISSION 1

Revs. Raphael de Peyer and Jana Bernadette traveled to Pensacola, Florida and Mobile, Alabama, for an exciting few days. They began by appearing as guests of Debbie Jones on her two hour call-in show for WKRG radio, one of Mobile's largest stations. The Lord had guided that the central thrust of His message for this mission was to concern His creatures, His healing and the connection between the two. The calls began immediately with an outpouring of support for the message. A taping followed for WKRG-TV's program, "Journal," which is modeled on '60 minutes,' conducted by Bill Jordan, a man with a deep compassion for animals. From there our ministers gave an interview to the Mobile Press-Register, which appeared the following day.

The next morning began with a wide-ranging interview with Dot Brown, who is writing a series of articles on healing for the Pensacola News-Journal. WBOP radio was next in Pensacola, and then it was back to Mobile for a two hour call-in show with David Page on WABB. The mission in Mobile closed with a meeting with Margaret Barnes, head of Humane Education and Animal Control, Inc. (HEAC), and we strongly urge all animal lovers in Mobile to offer whatever help you can to this fine organization. Call them at (205) 343-2529. Next mission to Pensacola/Mobile will be January 14-17, at which time Revs. de Peyer and Bernadette will be conducting a meeting in conjunction with HEAC.

Before returning to Atlanta they visited with Chris Burnworth and Susan Chiepalich, who had done so much to ensure the success of the mission. Our special thanks to them, and to all who contributed to this success for the Lord.

MISSION 2

The second mission, to Charlotte and Butner, North Carolina, was undertaken by Revs. John Christopher and Charity Benedicte. It began with tapings for two radio stations. The first, for WEZC, was hosted by Jerry White, a true animal lover. WEZC is a music station, and Jerry's interviews command a large audience in Charlotte. The second, for Christian station, WAME, was full of the Lord's fun and humor. The guidance for the mission was to speak about the healing effects of animals, and the fact that the mistreatment of animals can lead to future criminal behavior, which drew a great deal of interest and positive response. Included in the schedule was a visit to the Wesley Nursing Home, where pets take part in a most successful therapeutic and healing program with the elderly. Praise God for the healing He channels through His creatures.

Before leaving Charlotte, Rev. Christopher was interviewed by Martha Freeman for WSOC radio, and then it was on to Butner. The Lord had guided a visit to Rev. Cynthia Hale, the only lady chaplain in the federal prison system, and chaplain of the innovative Federal Correctional Institute (FCI) at Butner. A small facility by most standards, with 380 inmates, it has very little of the atmosphere of a normal prison. Begun in 1976 as an experiment, it is too early to say how well the program is working, but certainly the positivity of the environment and the Spirit-filled work of Rev. Hale deserves success and our prayer support. It was our ministers' privilege to conduct the Sunday service, which was filled with Christ's presence. Rev. Benedicte called the congregation forward for healing prayers, and Rev. Christopher delivered a stirring message on being reborn.

Praise God for a truly blessed mission and for the love and kindness of Mary Roth in Charlotte and Rev. Cynthia Hale in Butner, as well as the many friends that were made in the media. A return visit is being planned for the new year.

MISSION 3

As this Newsletter goes to press Revs. de Peyer and Bernadette are in Chicago. We shall be reporting on this mission next issue.

ANNOUNCEMENT

As many of you know, the period October 20-November 20 is a special time for all Founders (members of The Foundation Faith of God) called Covenant Month. It marks a time going back to the founding of the Ministry, when God first began to reveal His plans for us. It is a time each year when we specially remember the original covenant each of us made with God, and re-dedicate ourselves to His purpose. We invite you to join with us in spirit and renew your own dedication to the Lord and His work. We hope you will make a particular point of coming by to share our Celebrations and meetings with us. PLEASE NOTE: Faith Center will be closed all day November 20th.

Our thanks to all of you who have responded to our annual appeal, and a reminder to those who may have tucked the October Newsletter away—it is not too late to send in your offering!
